

COSTS U. S. $7 TO PRINT EVERY PRIVATE CLAIM

It costs Uncle Sam $7 to print every private claim or pension bill offered in Congress, Senator Moses of New Hampshire, member of the Senate Printing Committee, has so informed the Senate. Those bills are offered by the thousands in every Congress, and many of them are re-introduced session after session.

Mr. Moses offered a resolution recently to stop printing those bills, by which he expects to save nearly $100,000 annually. He said in the last Congress there were about 15,000 private bills printed, separately.

Pepto-Mangan Brings Vigor, Health And Happiness to Anemic Persons

When you're feeling your best—when you're brimming with happiness, "pep" and enthusiasm—people just can't help being drawn to you. You're a favorite wherever you go.

But when you're constantly tired and dull—when everything is too much trouble—when you're bored with yourself—it's natural that you affect your acquaintances likewise.

If you're not feeling up to par, you're not. If you're not sick exactly, but are just run down, what you need is a good tonic. The food you eat is not becoming energizing-making, red blood.

Everyone gets run-down occasionally. But it's not necessary and is really dangerous to let this condition hang on. A bottle of Pepto-Mangan, the famous "red blood builder" would supply the iron and other properties your blood now lacks—would bring back your old-time energy and enthusiasm—would put color in your cheeks and spring in your step.

Pepto-Mangan is agreeable and convenient to take, and endorsed by physicians everywhere. Can be had in either liquid or tablet form. There's no difference in their effectiveness. Ask your druggist for Pepto-Mangan and be sure it's "Gude's" the genuine. The name "Gude's" should be on the package.

GLENNON SLATED TO SUCCEED GIBBONS

St. Louis Prelate Favored at Vatican to Head Baltimore See, It Is Reported.

BALTIMORE, April 18.—The Most Rev. John Joseph Glennon, archbishop of St. Louis, is reported slated to succeed the late Cardinal Gibbons as archbishop of Baltimore, according to a cablegram from Rome last night. The message stated that Archbishop Glennon's name is the most prominently mentioned at the Vatican.

It was added that the name of the Rt. Rev. William T. Russell, bishop of Charleston, S. C., also was being mentioned as a possible head of the See of Baltimore. No new American Cardinal will be created at the June conclave, the message stated, adding that the report was confirmed at the Vatican.

Nevertheless, it is believed that should Archbishop Glennon be assigned to the Baltimore See as an archbishop, it will be only a matter of time before he is elevated to the cardinalate. This is based on information that emanated from the Vatican immediately after the death of Cardinal Gibbons. It was stated at that time it was indicated that should some one already of high rank be sent to Baltimore, he probably would receive the red hat and remain in that jurisdiction.

Archbishop Glennon already is known in Baltimore because it was he who preached the funeral sermon at the cathedral here for the late Cardinal.

South American diplomats are using their best efforts with the Holy See for representation of their countries in the Sacred College. When Pope Pius X in 1905 created the archbishop of Rio de Janeiro, Joachim Arcoverde de Albuquerque Cavalcanti, the first South American cardinal, it was understood that other South American countries would have the honor of a cardinalate in rotation. It was expected that after Brazil, Argentina would be next, then Chile, Peru and Bolivia.

"HISTORIC" CABIN CALLED A FRAUD

Cumberland Police Chief Doubts That Washington Ever Stopped at Riverside Shack.

CUMBERLAND, Md., April 18.—Although Police Commissioner Theodore A. K. Hummelshime severely attacked the authenticity of the claim of James Thomas, Maryland historian, that a cabin in Riverside Park was used by George Washington when he stopped at Port Cumberland in 1753, during the French and Indian war, he has authorized a detail of police to act on the day of the dedication—next Thursday—when General Pershing will be there.

In his letter to Chief of Police Eyerman, Commissioner Hummelshime says:

"Dr. Arthur P. Dixon, chairman of the American Legion committee, in charge of the matter of escort, parade, etc., in honor of General Pershing on his visit here next week, has applied to us for four patrolmen to head the parade."

"I have explained to Dr. Dixon that while I consider the alleged 'Washington's Headquarters' in Riverside Park an undoubted fraud upon the public, of which those responsible should be very much ashamed, and that I deeply regret that so distinguished a visitor as General Pershing should be induced to come to Cumberland under false pretenses, yet that, nevertheless, I do not feel that my personal views in the matter should be allowed to influence my action as head of the department when a request for police protection is made in connection with the ceremonies."

"I, therefore, request that you consult with Dr. Dixon and make whatever provision for police protection as may be deemed necessary and proper."

WED TWICE, WANTS BOTH KNOTS BROKEN

Girl Must Stay Tied to One Hubby or the Other for Two Years, Judge Says.

CHICAGO, April 18.—Two marriages are twice too often, Helen Audrey Silvers-Hackett-Greenwood told Superior Court Judge Greenwood.

Helen asked that her marriages be annulled. She married Merle Hackett at Crown Point, Ind., on October 20, 1919. She described him as a gypsy. She said she was sixteen at that time.

Helen met Dave Paul Greenwood seven weeks later at Valparaiso, Ind. On November 17, she married him, thinking her first marriage was without legal status and without her parents' consent.

"I returned home to my parents after one week of married life," said Helen.

Judge Greenwood thought the case over and said:

"If your first marriage is void, your second is valid. If the second is void, then it is because the first is valid. I guess you will have to remain the wife of one or the other until two years have passed, when you can secure a divorce on grounds of desertion."

JERSEY SNAKE HUNTERS SEEK LIVE "WRIGGLERS"

Arthur L. Gilliam, chief huntsman of the Reptile Study Society of America, will direct the hunt and announced he will assist the young ladies to bag any black snakes that appear too formidable for them to tackle alone.

The snakes are tamed, photographed and studied.

CIVIL WAR VET, 104, MISSES HIS LIQUOR

Maryland Centenarian Says He Always Smoked and Imbibed Freely.

CUMBERLAND, Md., April 18.—B. C. Trenman, Westernport, is still active at 104 years. Fifteen children of his family are still alive, the oldest a man of seventy-five. The youngest, twenty-two, served overseas during the world war. The father served in the Union army in the Second Maryland Cavalry.

Mr. Trenman is still an inveterate reader. He takes a keen interest in current matters. He has never used glasses. He says that he has never taken particular care of himself, that he has always used tobacco and that he has imbibed intoxicants, using whiskey until prohibition cut off the supply.

Born of parents of French and Dutch descent in Virginia, he was kidnapped when nine years old and taken to Frederick, Md., where he was put to work building rail fences. When eighteen years old he moved to Piedmont, Va., now West Virginia, and soon after married Miss Sarah White, of Hampshire county, Va. In 1875 they were divorced and soon after he married his present wife, who was Miss Maria McManis, who was then eighteen years old. The first Mrs. Trenman is still living.

OPERA STARS IN AUTO CRASH; ESCAPE UNHURT

PASSAIC, N. J., April 18.—Two members of the Metropolitan Opera Company, Titta Ruffo, baritone, and Mme. Flora Perini, contralto, were shaken up last night in an automobile collision near here. They were uninjured, however. Samuel D. Stan, a friend of Ruffo's, received cuts on the head and limbs and was taken to a hospital.

The party, which also included Hamlet Tolastri, Mme. Perini's husband, was on its way to Paterson, where Ruffo and Mme. Perini were to sing at a sacred concert. The concert was canceled.

Careless Shampooing Spoils the Hair

Soap should be used very carefully, if you want to keep your hair looking its best. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and ruins it.

The best thing for steady use is Mulsified coconut oil shampoo (which is pure and greaseless), and is better than anything else you can use.

One or two teaspoonfuls of Mulsified will cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which rinses out easily, removing every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft, and the hair fine and silky, bright, lustrous, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get Mulsified coconut oil shampoo at any pharmacy, it's very cheap, and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months. Be sure your druggist gives you Mulsified.
